

Letters and Science 121: Origins in Science and Religion (Spring 2013, UC Berkeley)

Summer 2013: Nick Matzke assembled the files of all notes and PDF references. The attached directory contains PDFs of all references used in the class and in discussion sections during Spring 2013. Not all of these were on the original syllabus.

The directory includes an Endnote file with the bibliographic information. The references are also provided below alphabetically.
